

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 77-1924.
Hull & Foster.
Kujulik Bay.

December 18, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, L. J. Hull and Alfred S. Foster, a co-partnership doing business under the firm name and style of Hull and Foster, and whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to construct and operate a plant for the canning of clams at Kujulik Bay, in the Chignik District of said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may take clams in Aniakchak Bay and on the beaches extending from Kujulik Bay to the eastern limits of the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation. Clams may also be secured on beaches in Nakalilok Bay in the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation for preparation at the plant of this permittee in Kujulik Bay.
2. That the pack of clams shall not exceed ten thousand (10,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case or their equivalents in "eastern oyster" of "1/2 lb. flats" on the basis of total contents of can.
3. That this permit does not grant any right to fish for or can salmon within the reservation.
4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

J. WALTER DRAKE.

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
